

Flue Dilution System

Cross Rental Services' flue dilution system is an arrangement of ducting which makes use of a fan unit to combine fresh air with the products of combustion. This is typically at a ratio of 10 parts air to 1 part product of combustion. This enables the safe disposal of the products of combustion at lower levels into the atmosphere & complies with the 1956 Clean Air Act.

Call us now 0808 1691919 for an instant quote